

Meet Your Teacher

Mr Hammett
Wolves Class Teacher

A little bit about me:

I have taught for well over twenty-five years, from the Foundation Stage to Year 5. When I started, we still used blackboards, and the only computers were really basic. The internet was only in its infancy and teachers still had video players. How times have changed! In Wolves, you'll be using a variety of hardware to access a whole variety of resources including EdShed, TTRS and PurpleMash.

Some of my favourite things:

Book: In terms of fiction, I tend to read fantasy-based books or Sci-fi. Non-fiction- I jump from autobiographies to history. I listen to lots of audio-books.

Hobbies: Sea fishing. I'm pretty good to be honest. Also, talking about my trip to Australia (30 years ago!)

Film: Fantasy. Lord of the Rings was great. I wasn't so keen on the Hobbit. The mountain trolls were not how I imagined they should be!

Colour: Crystal red (a car colour). I think it looks good.

Food: Spaghetti and meatballs. Fish and chips. Sausages. Lasagne. Humus (the healthy bit).

Animal: Cat - specifically, the Garfield type. Dog - Bassett Hound.

My dream dog.
